SCHEDULE OF PAYMENTS

Having assessed the defendant's ability to pay, the court orders that payment of the total criminal monetary penalties shall be due as follows:

The special assessment in the amount of $200.00 has been paid in full.

During the defendant's term of incarceration, the defendant shall participate in the Bureau of Prisons' Financial Inmate Responsibility Program. Any payments to the outstanding criminal monetary penalty shall be applied in the following order: special assessments, restitution, fine, any other.

Following release from incarceration, the defendant shall make payments to satisfy the criminal monetary penalty in monthly installments of $25 or 5% of the defendant's gross income, whichever is greater. The first payment shall commence 60 days following the defendant's discharge from incarceration, and continue until the criminal monetary penalty is paid in full. The defendant shall be responsible for providing proof of payment to the probation officer as directed.

The defendant shall inform the probation officer of any change in his economic circumstances affecting the ability to make monthly installments, or increase the monthly payment amount, as ordered by the Court. In the event a defendant is able to make a full or substantial payment toward the remaining criminal monetary penalty, he shall do so immediately.

The defendant is restrained from transferring any real or personal property, unless it is necessary to liquidate and apply the proceeds of such property as full or partial payment of the criminal monetary penalty.

Unless the court has expressly ordered otherwise in the special instruction above, if this judgment imposes a period of imprisonment, payment of criminal monetary penalties shall be due during the period of imprisonment. All criminal monetary penalties, except those payments made through the Federal Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program, are made to the Clerk of Court for the District of Nebraska, 111 S. 18th Plaza, Suite 1152, Omaha, NE 68102-1322.

The defendant shall receive credit for all payments previously made toward any criminal monetary penalties imposed.
